SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Mr. W. E. Spann has purchased a big Mitchell touring car.

Big line of hand-painted china expected daily at Simmons Hardware Company's.

The graded school will give holiday to-day (Thursday) on account of Thanksgiving.

One or two good farms near town for rent or sale. Apply to H. M. Graham, Manager.

G. Frank Bamberg received last week a car load of cattle, which he will fatten at his farm below town.

Mr. Phillip Murphy has had work commenced on single story brick store on Main street next to the post office.

See the new ad. of E. A. Hooton in this issue. He is offering some very attractive bargains to the ladies in seasonable and handsome goods.

That was a fine rain we had here Tuesday morning of this week, and it was certainly needed. We have never seen it dryer in this section than this fall.

Attention is directed to the new ad. of J. J. Smoak, the lively man, in this issue. He has bought out the lively stable of J. R. Kinard & Co., and will continue at the same stand.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Culler & Salley, of Orangeburg, automobile dealers, in this issue. They sell a magnificent automobile at $550. Write or phone them for a demonstration.

We learn that the Saltkeatchie Lumber Company, whose large plant near Olar was recently destroyed by fire, is rebuilding. We are glad to note this, as this mill gave employment to a large number of people.

Mule milliners, that's exactly what we are. Let us trim your mule up with a good set of plow gears. We have the best, and our prices are always such that will cause you to smile. SIMMONS HARDWARE CO.

There was no liquor left on hand in the dispensaries of Bamberg county, and the board of control will pay out a nice profit to the county, towns, and schools. We do not know the exact amount of money on hand, but it is a nice round sum.

For first-class photographs, go to the photo tent next to the post office. Will be in town only a short time. MINUTE PHOTO CO.

Among the accounts of liquor houses held up by the State dispensary commission, we note several from this county. We trust that this will not delay the winding up of dispensary affairs in Bamberg county, as the money is needed by the towns.

Twenty-four pictures for 25 cents for the next ten days. Tent near the post office. MINUTE PHOTO CO.

The Herald Book Store has received its line of Christmas goods and toys, and they are now on display. We have some very handsome goods, and in the assortment you can find a present for anybody. Full line toys, also story and picture books for the children.

Big clearance sale begins at H. J. Brabham's store Thursday, December 2nd, and continues until Saturday night, December 11th. Prices on all goods slaughtered. See the big circulars for prices.

Mr. Jno. M. Kirkland, of Olar, has been elected as manager of the Farmers' Mercantile Company, at Ehrhardt, which will commence business the first of January. Mr. Kirkland has been for some years carrier of one of the rural delivery routes out of Olar and also book-keeper for C. F. Rizler.

H. J. Brabham, Jr., has too many goods and must get rid of them. His big clearance sale commences Thursday morning, December 2nd, and continues until Saturday night, December 11th.

There has been a change in the schedule of the afternoon passenger train. The train going towards Charleston now arrives at 6:28, and on the return trip to Augusta arrives here at the same time as formerly, 7:58. This new schedule reduces the long wait in the afternoon at Branchville.

The big circulars of clearance sale at H. J. Brabham, Jr., give astonishing prices. All goods must go. Prices fearfully slashed. Sale commences next Thursday morning.

City council is after the license tax delinquents. It seems that some persons have not paid the license on bicycles, dogs, automobiles, etc., and council has Mr. Sandy Nevils out making collections. This is quite a convenience to the tax payers. In most towns you have to go to the clerk and treasurer to pay your license, and if you do not pay up in the time specified, the penalty attaches.

Watch for the big circulars announcing clearance sale at H. J. Brabham, Jr. Sale starts Thursday morning, December 2nd, and continues until Saturday night, December 11th. All goods reduced.

A few days ago Mr. L. N. Bellinger inquired of us as to who commanded the Confederate forces at the fight at Rivers' Bridges. Our recollection is that we published this information several years ago in a history of the Rivers' Bridges Memorial Association, written by Dr. R. C. Brabham, but we do not remember the year we published the article, and while we have all our file papers we do not know what files to look in for the article. We would be glad if some friend would inform us who commanded the Confederate forces at that fight.

NEWS AND NOTICES.

Rev. E. P. Easterling, soliciting agent for the endowment fund of Furman University and Greenville Female College, made a strong address on Christian education Sunday morning, and made an appeal for the endowment fund, which was responded to by several cash pledges amounting to more than forty dollars. If the Baptists of South Carolina can raise about five thousand more by the first of January next, they will have completed the hundred thousand dollars necessary to secure an additional gift of fifty thousand dollars promised on this condition from the North. Surely it can be raised.

The pastor preached at night on the Sabbath law and its modern desecration. This is one of a series of Sunday evening discourses delivered recently on popular evils of the day.

There will be a union thanksgiving service at the Methodist church Thursday evening, so there will be no prayer meeting at our church on that date.

Next Sunday will be the final rounding up of our work for the relief of our State mission board. Let every member of the church do his or her full duty on this line through some one of our auxiliary societies, at least.

Let us take this thought of Rev. Mr. Spurgeon's as our meditation for the week:

CHRISTIANITY AT HOME.

I have no faith in that woman who talks of grace and glory abroad, and uses no soap at home. Let the buttons be on the shirts, let the children's socks be mended, let the roast mutton be done to a turn, let the house be as neat as a new pin, and the home be as happy as can be; and then when the cannon balls, and the marbles and the shots, and even the grains of sand are all in the box, even then, there will be room for those little deeds of love and faith, which in my Master's name, I seek of you who love his appearing. Serve God by doing common actions in a heavenly spirit, and then if your daily calling only leaves you cracks and crevices of time, fill them up with holy service.

Hair Dressing Shop.

Something new and important just opened in your town. Madam Maynard, of Chicago, wants your patronage. If you have saved your combings, bring them to her shop and have them made into a hair braid, puffs, curls, wigs, pompadours, rats. If you haven't saved them, start now. Use my preparations for falling hair and dandruff. Let her shampoo your hair and give it scale treatment. Makes it grow long and beautiful. Hair dyed any color. Dress it in the latest and most up-to-date style. Hair to sell to match any color of hair.

MYRA HOOTON,

Fourth Vice President.

Last of the Court.

When The Herald went to press last week the case of Tracy Willis against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company was being tried. This was a suit for damages for personal injuries. The jury found a verdict for the railroad.

The case of H. M. Graham against the Southern Railway Company, a suit for damages for loss of goods in transit, resulted in a non-suit.

J. A. Tant against the Southern Railway, suit for damages for being put off the train, resulted in a verdict for $475 for the plaintiff. The plaintiff claimed that he boarded the train at Fort Motte without a ticket, because the agent informed him that he had no tickets on hand, but that he was put off at Bamberg, as he had not sufficient money to pay his way further. Mr. Tant was going to Denmark. The case will be appealed.

The most interesting case tried was that of Mrs. G. J. Fogle against Mrs. J. J. Fogle, a suit to compel the division of land. Two brothers, Geo. J. and J. J. Fogle, lived on this land as tenants in common, the title being in name of J. J. Fogle, and at the death of both of the brothers, the widow of J. J. Fogle claimed the land as per the title in her husband. The plaintiff claimed one-half of the property, and the jury found in her favor. The land comprises 167 acres of the best farming land in the Denmark section, and is quite valuable. However, there is a mortgage on it, and the plaintiff will have to assume her share of the debt. Court adjourned last Friday afternoon.

Clemency Asked.

A petition has been circulated here during the past few days asking that J. M. Steedly be not prosecuted on the charges against him as rural mail carrier. The petition has been generally signed by the best people of the town, and it is hoped that the young man will not be prosecuted. The small amount involved has been paid to the government, and, as stated in the petition, the young man has never been in any sort of trouble before and was generally regarded as thoroughly reliable until he got to drinking. Mr. Steedly had always appeared to us to be a quiet, steady young man, and the charges against him came as a great surprise. We signed the petition, and we add to it the statement that we trust the charges against him will not be pushed.

The Voting Contests.

In the voting contests at The Herald Book Store, in which a large, handsome doll will be given to some girl and a tool chest to a boy, the boys and girls are getting interested. These prizes are to be given away on Christmas eve, and only a few weeks remain now, so it is up to those who want to win out, to get busy. One vote is given with each purchase of five cents, so a purchase of $1 entitles you to twenty votes. But purchases must be for cash. We do not give votes where goods are charged. The vote to this week stood as follows:

Civic League.

The November meeting of the Civic League will be held at four o'clock in the city hall on Friday afternoon of this week. It was decided to change the time of meeting from Thursday afternoon, as this will be Thanksgiving day and the members might not be able to attend on account of the Thanksgiving services to be held in the Methodist church that evening.

Will Preach at Ehrhardt.

President J. H. Harms, of Newberry college, will leave on Friday afternoon for Florence, where he will deliver a lecture that evening in the opera house, his subject being, "The House that Jack Built." From Florence he will go to Ehrhardt, in Bamberg county, where he will preach on Sunday.—Newberry Observer.

Union Thanksgiving Service.

The churches of Bamberg will unite in a thanksgiving service Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Methodist church. The following is the program for the evening. The music will be in charge of the united choirs of the churches.

She sends along with this box, which is worth $90, a check for $45.00. Miss Carrie is to be warmly commended for her deep interest in this most worthy cause.

This number of the course promises to be very good. Both Mr. and Mrs. Day have quite a reputation on the stage. Mr. Day is a comedian in the best sense of the word: an actor whose fun is always next door to tears. Mrs. Day, as a reader, enjoys an equal reputation. This will be an enjoyable attraction. Let everybody come. Admission 50, 25, and 15 cents. Season tickets good.

Former Mayor Indicted.

North Wilkesboro, N. C., Nov. 20.—J. R. Caffey, ex-mayor of North Wilkesboro, was arrested here to-day on a charge of graft and bribery while mayor, following the finding of a true bill by the Wilkes county grand jury. He gave bond for appearance at the March term of superior court.
